Exhibitor's Duties and Privileges

20. Conduct of Exhibitor: Show Management may prohibit an exhibitor, exhibitor's employee or family member from competing or exhibiting for rude conduct toward any committee, judge, superintendent or any official of the Tulsa State Fair. Such persons may be reinstated after making proper apologies.

21. Disqualified Exhibitor: Any exhibitor who has been disqualified from participation or who has forfeited a premium or award or who has faced other disciplinary action at any livestock show is not eligible to participate in any competition or event at the Tulsa State Fair and the Tulsa State Fair reserves the right to decline entry, disqualify, or expel any such Exhibitor from competition at the Tulsa State Fair.

22. No Adherence to Rules: Any person found guilty of misrepresentation or not abiding by the rules will be disqualified and denied the privilege of showing at Tulsa State Fair.

23. Special Rules: To be eligible to enter, exhibitors and their livestock must meet the special rules of the animal or breed of animal to be exhibited. These requirements are listed in the Special Rules section in the Open Show, Horse Show, and Junior Show divisions.

24. Show Ring Code of Ethics: All exhibitors and contestants competing in the Tulsa State Fair must adhere to the Show Ring Code of Ethics.

25. Animal Welfare: The Tulsa State Fair is committed to the humane treatment of all animals exhibited. Every possible precaution is taken to insure the animals' safety and well-being. The production practices in the livestock industry are based on good principals of animal husbandry. No one has a greater economic stake in the welfare of animals than the livestock producers and organizations involved in the promotion of agriculture. It is the responsibility of all exhibitors to provide proper and humane care and treatment to animals. Show Management reserves the right to disqualify and remove any exhibitor deemed to be in violation of this basic principle of animal husbandry.

26. Animal Care: All owners or persons in charge of property or livestock shall care for, guard, protect, and preserve same, as the Tulsa State Fair does not undertake to do so, and it shall not be held responsible for any loss, shrinkage, or damage to said property or livestock or the owners or exhibitors thereof. The Tulsa State Fair is not responsible for the acts of third parties.

27. Diseased Animals: No animals carrying a disease of any kind will be admitted onto the Fairgrounds at any time. Show Management has authority to refuse unloading privileges to any livestock showing signs or symptoms of disease.

28. Animal Health Regulations: All livestock must enter through Gate 7. The Tulsa State Fair requires all animals entering the grounds to be accompanied by proper health papers which shall be presented at the time of arrival. Exhibitors agree to read and comply with all the current Oklahoma Health Rules and Regulations. Current Oklahoma Animal Health Rules and Regulations take precedent over this rule, no exceptions.

29. Veterinarian: Pine Ridge Equine Hospital will serve as the official Tulsa State Fair Equine Veterinarian.

30. Unauthorized Animals: Only animals officially entered will be allowed on the show grounds. Any animal(s) brought onto the grounds which is/are NOT entered for competition or exhibition will be removed from the Fairgrounds.

31. Arrivals: All vehicles hauling livestock must use Gate 7 on 15th Street. Health papers will be checked before unloading. Gate 7 is open from 6:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. NO LIVESTOCK WILL BE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE GROUNDS WHILE GATE 7 IS CLOSED.

32. Releases: Each exhibitor must obtain a written release authorized by Show Management before leaving the property with any animals or trailers. Any exhibitor removing an animal or exhibits before designated release time will be barred from future competition in the Tulsa State Fair, and will forfeit any premiums or award earned.

33. Trailers: All livestock trailers, other than "Show and Go" trailers must be parked in the off-site, secured parking area designated for trailers. No trailers will be allowed to park on the grounds. Exhibitors must have a release to retrieve livestock trailers from the trailer parking area. No animals are permitted to be housed in trailers at the trailer lot.

34. Show and Go Trailers: All "Show and Go" horse trailers must be parked in the reserved lot by Gate 7 on 15th street.

35. Stalls: Stalls will be assigned by the superintendent or their representative. Exhibitors making entries and not exhibiting shall forfeit all fees paid for stalls, pens, entry fees or admission tickets. No stalls will be used for any purpose other than to stall competing livestock. Show Management reserves the right to return entries when the stall numbers are full. Show Management reserves the right to assign any space not occupied by the exhibitor on opening day of the Fair. No exhibitor will be allowed to sublet or sell any space without the written permission of the Management. Horse stalls are 10'x10' and are on asphalt. Stalls must be kept clean and refuse deposited of in designated carts.

36. Aisles: Positively no horses are permitted in the center aisle. The center aisle is a pedestrian aisle. All horses will be washed in wash racks only. All bedding must be placed outside the barn. No bedding will be allowed in the center aisle. This rule will be strictly enforced.

37. Feed and Bedding: For your convenience in obtaining feed and bedding, except where animals are bedded on wood chips, a supplier is located on the north end of the Explorer Barn. It is permissible for exhibitors to bring their own feed and/or bedding but absolutely no deliveries, bulk or otherwise, from any other supplier may be made on the grounds during the Tulsa State Fair.

38. Sales: No exhibitor or other shall sell or give away any merchandise or product unless he has purchased space to conduct such sales.

39. Generators/Fuel: Generators and flammable fuels are prohibited on show grounds.

40. Schedule: Show Management reserves the right to cancel or change scheduling when necessary due to unforeseen circumstances.

41. Addition/Cancelation of Shows: Show Management reserves the right to add or cancel a show at their discretion.

42. Arena Promptness: Exhibitors are responsible for knowing the times at which their animals will be judged. Any animal not presented promptly will be ruled ineligible and barred from competition in the class. No complaint or protest on the grounds that the judge overlooked animals will be considered.

43. Public Address System: It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to be sure that their animal is at the gate at the appropriate time. Every effort will be made to maintain a working public address system to make class calls. No protest will be upheld, nor will any class be changed on the basis of public address malfunction.

44. Show Equipment: Livestock Shows provide an opportunity for the general public to be exposed to agriculture. Exhibitors should be mindful of the show equipment being use and the manner in which it is being used at all times. Cable halters and pronged chains are prohibited.

45. Unmanageable Animals: The safety of exhibitors and patrons are top priority. Therefore, Show Management may disqualify any animal deemed unmanageable.

46. Disqualification of Animal: Should any animal/entry awarded a prize be disqualified, the lower placing animals/entries will NOT move into the higher position.

47. Interfering with Judges: Any exhibitor or exhibitor's representative who attempts to interfere with a judge or displays disrespect to a judge shall be excluded from competing or exhibiting and forfeit any premiums or awards.

48. Judges Decision: The decisions of a judge shall be final and no appeal will be considered.

49. Age of Horses: The base date for computing age is January 1 of the year foaled.

50. Weanling Horses: Weanling horses have the option of coming in during the day and being released immediately following judging. These horses will not stall unless requested on the entry blank. All other horses must be stalled.

51. Premiums: No exhibitor shall be permitted to win more than two placing in any one class, with the exception of futurities and group classes. Individual animals shown in all the group classes must have been entered and shown in one of the classes for single animals. Where there is no competition, the merits of the animal will determine the award.

52. Awards: The Tulsa State Fair will furnish grand and reserve champion mare, gelding and stallion rosettes and class ribbons in all breed shows. Class trophies are the responsibility of the various breed associations.

53. Payment of Premiums: In paying premiums no evidence of award will be recognized unless the judging results have been properly recorded by the superintendent and signed by the judge. Premiums will be paid by check after the fair. Premium checks will not be issued to exhibitors that did not provide their SSN at the time of entry. All premium checks will be void after 60 days from issue date. Lost premium checks must be reported within 90 days following the fair. No premium checks will be rewritten after 90 days following the fair.

54. Objectionable Exhibits: Show Management reserves the right to remove from the grounds any exhibit, animal, concession or show that may be falsely entered or may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable, or to remove any sign, banner or advertising matter of any kind which may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable by them, without assigning a reason therefore, and if necessary to return any money already paid for space or stalls, which shall exonerate them from any claim whatsoever on the part of the exhibitor or purchaser.

55. Transportation Methods on Grounds: The use of golf carts, bikes, skateboards, and any other wheeled or motorized mode of transportation is prohibited by exhibitors on the grounds. Pedestrians always have the right of way.

56. Pets or Dogs: No dogs or pets shall be permitted on the Fairgrounds or in exhibit buildings during the Fair except when confined within the campgrounds unless they are part of an authorized act, exhibit or entered in the Cattle Dog Trials or 4-H Dog Show.

57. Smoking: A "no smoking" policy in exhibit buildings will be in effect at the Tulsa State Fair.

58. Liability: In no case shall the Tulsa State Fair, or any of its officers or employees, be held responsible for any loss, damage, tampering, administration of any drug or substance, misuse, sabotage, alteration, injury, death or disability by disease, or from theft, or from any other cause to any such animal or other property, or to any person coming upon said Fairgrounds while said person or property are on the Fairgrounds. The Tulsa State Fair hereby refuses to assume any responsibility for animals or other property brought upon said Fairgrounds, same being brought upon and kept upon said grounds at owner's sole risk. If the property owners or others interested in the property desire protection against loss, damage or injury from fire or any other cause, they must arrange for and pay for such insurance. Each exhibitor is solely responsible for the care, protection and security of their own animals while at the Tulsa State Fair.

59. Claim for Injury: The Tulsa State Fair expressly refuses to assume any liability for injuries to the persons of any of the exhibitors or their officers and employees or to any patrons or other persons coming upon the grounds of the Tulsa State Fair and no claims for injury to any person or property shall ever be asserted or suit instituted or maintained against the Tulsa State Fair, its officers, agents, representatives, or employees for said cause by any person having license or privilege to exhibit on the Fairgrounds or occupying space thereon, and it is a part of the consideration for such license or privilege that such claims for damages are specifically waived. If any damage, loss or injury to person or property shall be proximately caused by reason of negligence or willful act of any person, firm or corporation, or their agents, representatives, servants or employees having license or privilege to exhibit on said Fairgrounds or occupying space thereon, the Tulsa State Fair shall in no manner be liable. All persons causing same or liable therefore shall indemnify the said Tulsa State Fair at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

60. Protests: "Notwithstanding the other rules in this Exhibitor Handbook, contestants and exhibitors may protest the actions of other contestants and exhibitors." All protest must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $500.00, which deposit will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Said protest must be filed with the Show Management within five hours after the award was made, it being considered that award was made when ribbon or premium card is placed. Appeals must contain at least one specific charge stating at length the facts or the rule violated, and naming witnesses and their addresses to substantiate the charge. In addition to the right of protest therein guaranteed to exhibitors, the Management reserves the right to take cognizance of fraud consummated or attempted in connection with an animal and take such action as may be deemed just and proper. All questions or disputes or differences not provided for under these rules shall be referred to the Management, whose decision shall be final.

61. Appeals: No complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent or have overlooked an animal or article will be considered by the Management. The right of an exhibitor to appeal from the decisions of a judge to the Management will lie only when it is charged that the award has been made in violation of the rules governing the exhibit; or when it is charged that the decision of the judges has been influenced or interfered with by another. All questions or disputes or differences not provided for under these rules shall be referred to the Management, whose decision shall be final.
